Love Asks A Question

1 John 4:19 We love because he first loved us.

- Love goes _____ – it actively pursues.

Psalm 139:13-18 For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. 14 I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful I know that full well. 15 My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth. 16 Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be. 17 How precious to me are your thoughts, God! How vast is the sum of them! 18 Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand— when I awake, I am still with you.

Romans 5:8 But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

- Loving each other looks like _____ each other.

Ephesians 5:21–25 ...21 submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. 22 Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. 24 Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands. 25 Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her,

Philippians 2:3–11 Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. 4 Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. 5 Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, 6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. 9 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:3 ...count others as more significant than yourselves.

Philippians 2:7 but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant.

Philippians 2:9 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name,

Mark 10:43–45 Jesus said, “That’s how people outside of the kingdom of God think.” 43 But it shall not be so among you. Whoever would be great among you must be your servant, 44 and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. 45 For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

John 13:3-5 On the night before Jesus died, the disciples had just eaten their last meal together, and 4 He laid aside his outer garments, and taking a towel, tied it around his waist. 5 Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet

John 13:12–15 “Do you understand what I have done to you? 13 You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. 14 If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. 15 For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you.

Ephesians 5:21, “submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ.”

“The primary point of marriage is to teach you to wash the feet of another sinner.” – Elyse Fitzpatrick
